EU removes Bosnia from list of high-risk countries for financing terrorism – N1

July 9, 2020

The BiH Justice Ministry said the EU has removed BiH from the list of high-risk countries with weak anti-terrorism financing regimes and that the decision enters into force Thursday.

Bosnia's justice ministry said the European Commission has recognised the country's progress and measures taken in the past period and concluded that currently, the country has no "strategic deficiencies" in its anti-money laundering and terrorist financing regimes.

EU Delegation welcomes the adoption of amendments enabling Mostar election – N1

July 9, 2020

The EU Delegation in BiH on Wednesday welcomed the BiH Parliamentary Assembly's adoption of amendments to the election law enabling the city of Mostar to hold its first local election in 12 years, and also urged authorities to immediately secure the funds for holding the 2020 local election.

The EU statement said, "We warmly welcome today's adoption of the amendments to the BiH Election Law, finally enabling the holding of Mostar municipal elections. Holding these elections is included among the 14 key priorities of the Commission's Opinion on the EU membership application of Bosnia and Herzegovina."

Council of Ministers session cancelled after agenda not adopted – SRNA

July 9, 2020

Council of Ministers Chairman Zoran Tegeltija said that the session of the Council of Ministers scheduled for Thursday was not held because the proposed agenda was not adopted. He explained that the three ministers from the Croatian people voted against the proposed agenda.

“The reason for not voting for the agenda, although until then there were no objections to the items on the agenda, is that certain items were removed at the request of the Deputy Chairman of the Council of Ministers Bisera Turković and that she said she would not vote for some items concerning staffing decisions which refer to candidates who come from the ranks of the Croatian people”, Tegeltija told reporters.
